Rights & Responsibilities Summary Checklist

I understand that I have a right to the following (check all boxes as you read):

- Written information on my loan obligations and information on my rights and responsibilities as a borrower
- A grace period and an explanation of what this means
- A disclosure statement, received before I begin to repay my loan, that includes information about interest rates, fees, the balance I owe, and the number of payments
- Deferment of repayment or forbearance for certain defined periods, if I qualify and if I request deferment or forbearance
- Prepayment of my loan in whole or in part anytime without an early-repayment penalty
- Documentation that my loan is paid in full

I understand I am responsible for:

- Completing exit counseling before I leave school or drop below half-time enrollment
- Repaying my loan even if I do not complete my academic program, I am dissatisfied with the education I received, or I am unable to find employment after I graduate
- Notifying my school and my loan servicer if I move/change my address or change my name
- Making monthly payments on my loan after my grace period ends, unless I have a deferment or a forbearance
- Notifying my loan servicer of anything that might alter my eligibility for an existing deferment or forbearance

I understand the consequences of defaulting:

- The consequences of defaulting (failing to pay according to your loan contract) on a federal student loan are severe and long lasting. For example, I might not be able to qualify for an auto or home loan, my wages can be garnished, and my federal income tax refund could be withheld and applied to my student loan balance.

I have read and I understand my rights and responsibilities as a borrower and consequences of defaulting. I understand that I am applying for a loan from the federal government that must be repaid.
